ALLEN AND HIS BILL

The Attorney Testifying in the Fred Leonard Case.

WHY THE CHILD WAS ADOPTED

Mr. Allen Did Not Use a Planchette Board to Reveal the Puture to Mrs. Leonard.

The whole afternoon was consumed In probate court yesterday in examining into the bills of N. P. Allen and other attorneys who have filed claims against Fred Leonard's estate. N. P. Ailen was on the stand all day. He testified that Fred Leonard adopted the child because he did not wish any children of his own. Fred claimed that his stekness was in-herited from his father, and he did not wish to have children for fear they would Le cursed in the same way.

Mr. Ailen denied that he advised Frad Leonard to get out of town after the probate court had ordered him sent to a private asylum, but he admitted being with Fred in Chicago two days after he left the city. It was all an accelent

Reger Butterfield, who is conducting the examination created considerable more more in the babit of using a planchette beard in his office when Mrs. Rice, Fred Leenard's wife, came into his Nice, Fred Leonard a wife, came into his office to consuit him. Mr. Alien claimed to know nothing of a planchette board he had never heard of such a thing before. Mr. Alien suid his charge of $20 per day for trial was not unusual. He suid he had received as high as $1.00 per day in criminal cases. He assaily charged about $25 per day on trials.

Late last evening a fellow applied for a scarringe license. He was asked if he had been married before. He replied that he had worn the yoke twice. When asked if he was divorced from his wives or if they were dead, he said he had not heard from his first wife in twenty years and did not know whether she was dead or living. He started to get a divorce from his second wife, but was informed that he was not legally married to her, so the case was dropped. He was ad-vised to trace out the fate of wife No. 1 and if abo still lived to get a divorce from her before getting his matrimonial affairs in a worse tangle.

As announced exclusively in THE HISCALD yesterday morning, five keepers of saloons and beer gardens were ar-feeted and arraigned in Justice Brown's court yesterday afternoon. They are the men from Reed's take, against whom Presecuting Attorney Wolcott has be-gun a warfare to close their places on Sunday. They all demanded an examination and gave bail for their appearance. Assistant Prosecutor Burns would not accept their personal bonds and sureties were furnished.

Martin Pleaded Guilty.

E. J. Martin, cutter for Houseman, Donnelly & Jones, who was arrested last week for stealing goods from his employ-ers, was arraigned in the superior court yesterday and pleaded guilty. He will be sentenced next Monday. A Levy, charged with receiving the stolen goods. make a fight on his case, and pleaded not guilty.

Court Notes.

The case against C. W. Johnston was noile proof in the superior court yester-day. He was arrested several months ago on complaint of Lieutenant J. F. Y. Blake and Captain A. K. Sommers for getting 850 from them on a note which they signed as they claimed on false statements made by Johnston.

Jennie Hell, charged with grand lareeng was discharged yesterday on mo-tion of the prosecuting attorney. She has been in jail for a month and was tried two weeks ago for larceny from a dw-ling house and was acquitted. Mr. Wolcott considered the testimony very weak and so dismissed the case.

George J. Wilson, the red-headed tough captured pear liarrison's wagon works two weeks ago, after holding up Frank Cordes and attempting to shoot the detective who was sent out to arrest him, was arraigned in the superior court yesterday and pleaded not guilty pro

A Contractor's Advice.

Dullam's Medicine Co.—Gentlemen:
I take great pleasure in testifying in behalf of Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure. I can safely say that I never took such medicine as that to cleanse the liver, stomach and kidneys. I was suffering for years with biliousness, indigestion and loss of appetite and sleep. One bottle did for me more good than six months' other treatment, and I feel it my duty to testify in its behalf, so others may try it and get cured.
